TERM AND CONDITIONS:

Advertiser will be invoiced at publication with a final printed tear sheet. Pre-press proofs will be furnished upon request. Changes after proof will be charged at trade rates. All production work for any development of or changes to an advertisement will be charged at trade rates. Services required to meet specifications not met by advertiser or any other unprovided for expense will be billed at trade rates. Publisher is not responsible for reproduction from poor quality materials. Checking proof should accompany materials.

Payment is due upon receipt of invoice. If for any reason, advertiser or his agent fails to furnish publisher with art work or copy necessary for the completion of the advertisement by the closing date called for, advertiser hereby agrees that payment will be made in full, in consideration for publisher reserving said space. If for any reason TradeFair Group, Inc. does not receive payment both advertiser and their agent company will be held jointly responsible for any outstanding debt.

The advertiser and/or his agency agree to indemnify TradeFair Group, Inc. against any litigation arising from their unauthorized use of names, art drawings, or photographs and from any infringement of copyright or patents on their part as displayed in their advertisements. Publisher assumes no responsibility for negatives that are lost, damaged or altered in the production process.
